REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 4-21 are allowed.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

3. The prior art of record fails to teach a banded-pricing schedule that is maintained in storage and means for determining the subscribers' usage of minutes at a given period with its respective cost or price. Every band schedule has its respective price or cost set for the user to be billed from, depending of usage of minutes and schedule plan contracted into. Where the minutes are banded in the following manner by having a predetermine initial band to start with 0-300 minutes set as the standard starting band with a starting cost to the subscriber and then every additional group of 24 minutes from the end of the initial band will create another band schedule successively with its respective price depending on type of schedule contracted into by subscriber.
4. Hidem et al. cited in a previous office action disclosed a controller that includes a memory for storing call rate information indicative of rates charged for the cellular communication. A timer is used to keep track of minutes used in order to apply rates cost per minutes used determine from start and end of time being tract by timer when a subscriber uses the mobile phone. However, Hidem et al. failed to teach the banded price schedule with a set price for a set range of minutes used by a subscriber.
5. Therefore, claims 4-21 are allowed.
